

LOCAL AND DISTRICT.

From a notice by a Daily News reporter Monday morning, Mr. Moffat, of the Royal, arrived here this morning.

Mr. Moffat & Co. have arranged to occupy their new premises.

An assembly of the Knights of Labor will be held here on Thursday.

Rev. McManis is preparing to get around again after his long illness.

Mr. B. J. McManis, the editor-in-chief of the Medicine Hat Times, is visiting Calgary today.

Mr. John McDonald, of Winnipeg, is at the Royal. He leaves for Edmonton tomorrow on a business trip.

Mr. Wm. Chapman of Chicago was among this morning's arrivals. He will take a position in Denver & Grand.

A new building is being erected on McTavish St., by a syndicate composed of Messrs. Brown, Buchanan and Bannerman and it will probably be occupied as a restaurant.

The examination of candidates for teachers' certificates took place in the Calgary district at the central house. It will be conducted by Mr. J. W. Goss, Inspector.

Mr. Telford, of the Dominion Express Company, is now residing between Winnipeg and Calgary. He is a brother of the local treasurer of the C. P. R. and one of the most popular boys on the road.

Mr. Supt. Wylie and Mr. Shidlo, passed out this morning. Mr. Shidlo, who held the position for the stock yards, was recommended by the board of trade as satisfactory to the company.

Mr. J. K. Kelly, the wholesale grocer at the Royal Hotel, has gone into business as a retail grocer and has opened out a fresh new stock of goods and has a few more out of the Royal. He will no doubt prosper.
